MISCELLANEOUS:

The County Auditor asked if there was, anyway, we might be able to see if one of the IT employees will work from 7-4 or even 7:30 – 4:30 while John is gone. There never used to be a problem when John was here because he came in at 7:00 a.m. and if there were any problems for the employees that come in at 7:00 he could help and we didn't have to sit around until 8:00 when the other employees come in. The Commissioners advised they will talk to them and see if one of them is willing to do that. No action was taken.

LISA SCHALER – COMPREHENSIVE PLAN:

Lisa asked if the draft Comprehensive Plan be available to the public to review before it is voted on. Lisa advised they will be having their Northwest meeting and would like to let them know and see if they have any questions or concerns. Commissioner Abel advised it has just been released and advised they should be able to get you a copy shortly. This was information only; no action was taken.

There being no further business to come before board. A motion to adjourn was made by Lawson, seconded by Runnebohm, approved 3-0.
