MISCELLANEOUS:

EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT:

Denis advised the Big Blue River crested on Saturday at 16.69 ft and then started going back down. Able asked if there was anything we needed the county residents to do if their house was flooded. Denis advised in order for Shelby County to declare an emergency, they would have to have at least 10 houses that totally flooded, and he did not think they had any. But if someone does have damage, they could talk to them. Denis also advised Marion County reached out to him and was in need of sandbags, so he furnished them with 35,000 and Marion County will be replacing them. This was information only; no action was taken.

There being no further business to come before board. A motion to adjourn was made by Lawson, seconded by Runnebohm, approved 3-0.
